

Jan. 1852.

3

Jan. 1. The year was ushered in by a furious snow squall which lasted part of the forenoon. Weather cleared up in the afternoon & we had a very fine cold evening with some wind.

Was called up at 5<sup>o</sup> by a "Happy new year" from Aurelia Stinson & Hannah Sweetser, & an invitation to breakfast with Chaney Davis.

Elizabeth found a splendid sled in the entry & a neat little volume from her friends. Dined at Mr. Dabynsles on Turkey & plum pudding. Abigail Whittermore was married by the Rev. Mr. Brown to William Pratt about 10<sup>o</sup> P.M. & took Cass at 12 past 3. for New Bedford for a honey moon. Eliza Whittermore was married to Rev. Mr. Jenkins at 12 past 6. P.M. by Rev. Mr. L. Townsend of Troy & retired to the parsonage.
